The policy men were blads, was given to the General at the St Naholas. It was attended by an Immens-crowd, who called repeatedly for General Singleton, who at length appeared on the balcony of the hotel and addressed them. The General repudiated the charges made gamet him by Judge Highy and others, and said that if he was a disorganize, as Rigby charged, he (Higby) was a demoralizer; that he was at one time a Mormon, and the sell ter of a Mormon paper at Nauvoo, which at length became so dirty and contemptible that Joe Saith threw it into the Mississippi;

Singleton was opposed to any resolutions at all on the Presidential question. He was in favor of allowing the sovereigns to settle this matter for themselves. They were to be the judges. We have two war candidates now in the field. He said if another is non-insted, who can the peace man support? The question was put to the vote, and on motion of a gentleman, whose name I did not get, both resolutions were laid on the table almost unanimously.

Singleton then went to the other stand, and Springer followed, when the same performance with the same result was gone through with there. So Singleton carried his point in every particular, but learning the crowd at the stand. Springer then ran to the descried stand, and went through the face of reconsidering a resolution that had been hid upon the table by the meeting. It was done by a crowd of about fiften men, two boys and an old apple woman, and this will no dount be heralded forth by the policy papers as an anti-Singleton triumph, when the truth is that Singleton had nine-tenting of the meeting with him. Every sentimen in favor of speace was cheered to the echo, while not a resolution in favor of war in any manner or shape could be got through.

After Gen. S. had retired, H. Clay Dean spoke, when the crowd dispersed.

Gov. Tates was on the ground at the meeting during a part of the time, and wherever he went he was surrounded by friends and acquainstances of both parties, who greeted him most varmly. again unite our country on a lasting basis of peace.
That it is the duty of the Chicago Convention to give expression to this spirit of oesee, and to declare as the purpose of the Democratic party to cause the desoluting war to cease by the calling of a National Convention, in which all the States shall be spiresented in their suvereign capacity, and that to this end an armistic be declared. If the Convention shall place shother war condicate and platform before the people, there will be no real issue to decide. The candidates already nominated represent all who cling to war, and it is sound policy to gather aggether under our beanerall who entertain the opposit's estiments and are in savor of rectoring the country to its former condition of prosperity and happiness, only to be obtained by the election of a peace President pleiged to support a peace

On arriving here, we were most cordially welcomed by Cul Shaffer, the chief of Gen. Buther's staff. His Illinois friends may be assured, that he manifests the same intelligent spergy in his most respon this position, that he always practiced at home, in whatever he undertook. His ready practical mind comprehends all the infinite variety of details that daily come under his direction, and no duty is a lose to drag for amouncat. Whatever is to be done is done at opee, and that well and thoroughly. His ardent active mind comprehends all the infinite variety of desists tear daily come under his direction, and no daty is a lowe. It draw for all most and inspires of the control of the co proved a most wise move, and done mands to tranquilize the country. The supplies on hand were small, and when those were gonto more could be obtained by reods, neither were they permitted to send their produce to market. This reduced them to great ance. Hundreds have already reaconneed all connection with the rebellion, and are estacity at work to spread and increase the Union entiment in the country. Outrages upon Union men have cannot, and they are returning in peace and sately to their houncs.

Guerilias have pretty much left the vicinity of Graves and McCracken counties, and order and quiet is measurably restored. This is all the effects of the firm, not reliancy and has already compelled submarism of a great part of his district.
It can carriety be conceived the state of
